

At the Cork Centre for Architectural Education (CCAIE)
Room 3.8, 9/10 Copley Street Cork.
Tuesday 25th of June

1:30 PM –Registration

2:00 PM start – The NEES Project

Welcome and Introduction - Prof. Kevin McCartney, Director CCAE

What has the NEES Progress achieved to date? - Jose Ospina, Project Manager NEES

Comparative Life Cycle Assessment of Natural Materials - Minka McInerney, Housing Retrofit and Sustainability Expert.

NEES submission to the UK APPG on Sustainable Construction and the Green Deal - Stuart Thompson (University of Ulster)

3:00 PM Break and Networking

3.30 PM – Examples of NEES Best Practices

The NEES Best Practise Criteria and selection process - John Scahill, GMIT (Expert Panel Member)

Irish Best Practice – The Hollies Centre for Sustainability - Thomas Riedmuller, Director,

Irish Best Practice – Green Roofs Ireland - Rita Higgings, Director

4:30 – Examples of NEES Pilot Projects

Energy Efficient Community Centre in Claremorris and Training in Sustainability , Claremorris, Co. Mayo - Alma Gallaher, Director (Clar ICH)

Sustainable Retrofit of a Sheehan Cottage in Cloyne, Cork - Orla McKeever and Kevin Gartland, Architects, (CCAIE)

Sustainable Retrofit of a traditional house on Aran Island - John O’Leary and Colm Cryan (NCE)

5:00 Panel Discussion and Conclusions

Which way forward for the NEES Project? - Panel discussion - Chaired by Prof. Kevin McCartney, Director of CCAE

5:30 Refreshments, more networking and goodbyes

6:00 End of Seminar.

